DIRECTORS ARE WELL PLEASED

Look for Big Week if the Weather Continues to Be Fine

Taking the opening day of the fair as an indication of the well, there is a big success to be registered. Compared with large the receipts for the first year, the receipts for the first year. Last year the opening day was one all day with hore races as the stellar attraction. This year the fair just openat at night and the gate receipts $655 for the whole day last year. This is taken by Manager Stark to mean that Western optimism has overcome the clouds that have hovered during the past year of short crops and dry president of the Capadian National Company of the Capadian National Capadian State of the Capadian National Capadian State of the Capadian National Capadian N
